DEFENDANT: JAMES EDWARD SNELL, JR.
CASE NUMBER: CR 19-20-GF-BMM-01

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. ### SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must submit your person and any property, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), or other electronic communications or data storage devices or media to which you have access to a search at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, with or without a warrant, by the probation office, with reasonable suspicion concerning your violation of a condition of supervision or unlawful conduct. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. You must warn any other occupants, adults and minors that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. You must allow seizure of suspected contraband for further examination.
2. The defendant shall not knowingly possess or use any computer or other device with access to any online computer service without the prior written approval of the probation office. The defendant shall allow the probation office to make unannounced examinations of their computer, hardware, and software, which may include the retrieval and copying of all data from defendant's computer. The defendant shall allow the probation office to install software to restrict the defendant's computer access or to monitor the defendant's computer access. The defendant shall not possess encryption or steganography software. The defendant shall provide records of all passwords, internet service, and user identifications (both past and present) to the probation officer and immediately report changes. The defendant shall sign releases to allow the probation officer to access phone, wireless, internet, and utility records.
3. You must consent to third-party disclosure to any employer or potential employer concerning any computer-related restrictions that are imposed, unless excused by the probation officer.
4. You must make a good faith effort to obtain a GED or high school diploma within the first year of supervision.
5. All employment must be approved in advance in writing by the probation office. You must consent to third-party disclosure to any employer or potential employer.
6. You must not be allowed to do the following without prior written approval of United States Probation: knowingly reside in the home, residence, or be in the company of any child under the age of 18; go to or loiter within 100 yards of school yards, parks, playgrounds, arcades, or other places primarily used by children under the age of 18.
7. You must submit to not more than six polygraph examinations per year as directed by the probation officer to assist in treatment, planning, and case monitoring. You maintain your Fifth Amendment rights during polygraph examinations and may refuse to answer any incriminating questions. You must pay part, or all of the costs of these examinations as directed by the probation officer.
8. You must not knowingly acquire, possess, or view any materials depicting sexually explicit conduct as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2)(A), if the materials, taken as a whole, are primarily designed to arouse sexual desire, unless otherwise approved by the probation office in conjunction with your sex offender treatment provider. This condition applies to written stories, visual, auditory, telephonic, or electronic media, computer programs or services, and any visual depiction as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(5). You must not knowingly patronize any place where sexually explicit material or entertainment is the primary item of sale, such as adult bookstores, clubs, or internet sites, unless otherwise approved by the probation officer in conjunction with your sex offender treatment provider. You must not utilize 900 or adult telephone numbers or any other sex-related numbers, or online chat rooms that are devoted to the discussion or exchange of sexually explicit materials as defined above.
9. You must enter and successfully complete a sex offender treatment program as approved by the probation office. You are to remain in that program until released by the probation office in consultation with the treatment provider. You must pay part or all of the costs of this treatment as directed by the probation office.
10. You must participate in and successfully complete a program of substance abuse treatment as approved by the probation office. You must remain in the program until you are released by the probation officer in consultation with the treatment provider. You must pay part or all of the costs of this treatment as directed by the probation office.
11. You must abstain from the consumption of alcohol and are prohibited from entering establishments where alcohol is the primary item of sale.
12. You must participate in substance abuse testing to include not more than 104 urinalysis tests, not more than 104 breathalyzer tests, and not more than 36 sweat patch applications annually during the period of supervision. You must pay part or all of the costs of testing as directed by the probation office.
13. You must not possess, ingest or inhale any psychoactive substances that are not manufactured for human consumption for the purpose of altering your mental or physical state. Psychoactive substances include, but are not limited to, synthetic marijuana
14. You must have no contact with the victim in the instant offense.
15. You must not access the internet except for reasons approved in advance by the probation officer.
